Subject: PRICEY WATCHES STOLEN FROM VEHICLE

Burglary detectives are investigating a car break-in that took place on June 25, 2019, inside a parked white 4-door Chevy Malibu located at 3358 S.W. 3 Ave, around 6:30 p.m.

According to detectives, earlier that day, the victims purchased several watches from a local jewelry and watch show. After the purchase, the victims placed the recently purchased items inside the rear compartment of their vehicle. The victims then drove to a local restaurant and parked it in front of 3358 S.W. 3 Ave.

Once the victims returned to the vehicle, they observed and discovered $100,000.00 worth of watches and other personal items were gone.

Surveillance video captures a newer model black Nissan Murano parked at a distance then it captures one of the suspects enter the vehicle. The suspect begins to remove items from the Chevy Malibu and loads the stolen items into the awaiting Nissan Murano. Both suspects fled eastbound on S.W. 3 Avenue.

Suspect #1: white male, approximately 5'5" tall, 180 pounds, last seen wearing a black baseball cap, gray long sleeve shirt, black pants and black sneakers.

Suspect #2: (driver of Nissan Murano) no description.
