Shortly before 1:00 PM, The City of Miami Police Department responded to 6832 NW 5 Ave regarding the death of an infant, a three month old female, left alone inside a car.

According to the on-scene investigation, the infant's grandmother had taken her daughter (infant's mother) to work. When she returned home, approximately 8:30 AM, she forgot that the infant was inside the car. The infant was pronounced dead on the scene. Detectives are interviewing family members who appear extremely distraught.

Investigation continues.
