Subject: CONVIENCE STORE ROBBED AT KNIFE POINT

The Miami Police Department's Robbery detectives are interested in finding out the identity of a young man who walked into the Golden Market located at 501 Northwest 12 Avenue, at approximately 6:30 P.M., on February 29, 2016 and robbed the store at knife point.

Detectives say the subject walked into the store with a gray shirt wrapped around his right arm, approached the cash register, leaned over the counter while the victim was assisting another customer, pulled a knife from under the shirt and demanded money from the register. As the victim yelled "call the police" the subject fled.
