Subject: MIAMI POLICE NAB BANK ROBBER

On Tuesday, August 26, 2009, at approximately 5:30 P.M., Miami Police responded to the Bank of America located at 701 Brickell Avenue in reference to an armed robbery.

It was an unforgettable day for employees and customers when a White male entered the bank with a ski mask on, a long sleeve shirt and gloves, in the attempts to hide his identity. This individual nonchalantly handed a note to the teller stating "I have a gun, please give me all your money or I will kill you." The teller complied and the suspect fled the scene on foot.

The suspect fled to his nearby residence that was located at 31 S.E 5 Street, approximately one block away from where the bank was located. Witnesses stated that the suspect, while enroute to his home, began to disrobe and toss his disguise into a construction site. A perimeter was quickly established and the offender Fabio Alfredo Gomez D'Croze was apprehended.
