MIAMI POLICE DEPARTMENT

Date: August 10, 2010

Subject: NEWS CONFERENCE AT 3:00 P.M.

Chief Miguel A. Exposito and members of the Miami Police Department will be launching “Operation Take Back Our Streets.” A news conference announcing the details of the operation will be held today, at 3:00 P.M., at Legion Memorial Park located at 6447 N.E. 7 Avenue.

In response to the recent shootings in the Model City and Little Haiti communities, the Miami Police Department has partnered with City of Miami public officials, community leaders and other law enforcement agencies to launch this operation.

Police personnel will be saturating the streets in an effort to restore the peace and identify the criminal activities that have been disrupting the quality of life in these neighborhoods.

There will be visual opportunities as well as some ride-a-longs available to the media.
